

Bristol Social News

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
BRISTOL, VA., March 27.—Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Harrell have returned from Tampa, Fla., where they spent the winter.
Mr. and Mrs. N. D. Bachman and children, who spent a portion of the winter at Sanibel and Estero, Fla., have returned to Bristol.
Walter E. Allen spent a part of this week in Washington, D. C.
Rev. W. H. T. Squires and family will leave next week for Norfolk, where Mr. Squires will be pastor of Park Place Presbyterian Church.
James D. Kligore has returned from the Middle West, where he spent the winter, as the manager of a theatrical company.
Dr. N. T. Dulaney, Dr. J. S. Bachman and Dr. M. M. Pearson spent the week in Baltimore and other points East.
Mrs. Ben J. James has returned from California and Colorado, where she visited relatives.
Mrs. P. C. March and children are at home after a visit to relatives at Marion.
Miss Elaine Hull has returned to Marion after a visit to Mr. and Mrs. Joseph L. Kelly.
Miss Frances Logan Nice, who was the guest of Bristol relatives, has returned to Rogersville, Tenn.
Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Morrison, of Johnson City, have returned to Marion after a visit to Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Barker.
Mrs. John Lawrence has returned to Christiansburg, after a visit to her brother, Harry Shelton.

Warrenton Social News.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
WARRENTON, VA., March 27.—Miss Catherine McCabe, the teacher of the Woodhouse School, met with a serious accident Monday, when she fell and broke her ankle.
Mrs. Winton Matthews has sold her attractive farm, near Delong, Del., and is moving to Florida.
Mr. Fell will take possession shortly.
Mrs. Editha Lee has rented the residence of Mrs. Emily Forbes on Winchester Street for the summer months, and will move in shortly. Mrs. Forbes will spend the summer at "Weymouth" with Mr. and Mrs. E. B. King.
Louis Hursthal, of Washington, spent several days in Warrenton lately.
Mrs. Delancy Evans is visiting friends in Washington.
Miss Cora Franklin went to Washington this week, where she will undergo treatment in a hospital.
Mr. and Mrs. Bayard Rucker, of Delaplace, spent some time this week with Mr. and Mrs. Varner at "Fairview."
Miss Lucy Spilman is at home at "The Dell," after spending several months in Washington, D. C.
H. C. Spilman was in town this week.
Miss Nannie Colvin is at home after a visit to friends and relatives in Washington.
Miss Kathleen McDonnell, of Baltimore, who was the guest of Miss Anna Day last summer, will be in Warrenton for the week.
Miss Jane Forbes will return home this week after a visit to Norfolk.
Miss Elizabeth Gaines is spending several days this week in Washington.
Miss Lena Gaines is at home after a short stay in Washington.
Miss Katherine Wade, of Broad Run Station, is spending several days with Miss Nannie Jeffries.
Miss Virginia Vaughn is at home again after a visit to Mr. Richard Walton Cook, in Arlington, Md. Mrs. George Latham Cook is visiting her grandfather, T. N. Fletcher.
Mrs. William Hayes is at home after a trip on business to New York.
Thad Fletcher, Jr., after a visit to Baltimore, is at home again.
Mrs. F. C. Hodgkins is at home after an extended trip to Charlottesville and other places.

Farmville Social News.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
FARMVILLE, VA., March 27.—Joe Melwaine, of Petersburg, is a guest of Mrs. Joseph E. Johnston, of Farmville.
David Robinson, of New York, was a visitor this week to his sister, Mrs. Simon Laskey, of this town.
Miss Emily B. Selden has returned home after a visit to friends in Richmond and Washington.
Dr. W. E. Anderson opened the doors Friday evening to a score and more of young people who mingled in social converse, and kept step to the music rendered by masters of string and bow. There was a dull moment from opening to closing hour, and the evening was declared to have been one of the pleasantest of the season. Mrs. Anderson and Huggins thanked the guests, and at 12 o'clock all were invited to a nearby restaurant, where a feast of birds, fruits and other delicacies of the season were served with touches of refined hospitality. Among those present were Mrs. Willie Richardson, Mrs. Willie Venable and Mrs. John Watkins, chaperones; Misses Minnie Crow, Gertrude Sutherland, Blackstone, Blanche Gentry, Elizabeth Sutherland, Hattie Paullet, Alice Paullet and Beulah Paullet, Hattie Bugg, Hattie Cox, Corde Kyle, Beulah Price, Lulu Driver, Elizabeth Richardson, George Sinclair, Kathleen Baldwin, Annie Garnett, Julia Johnson and Alice Burgess, Mrs. Anderson and Huggins; Messrs. Garnett, Duvall, Brooks, Elias, Clyde Bliss, Joe Hubbard, Archer Wade, Frank Baldwin, Barton Briggs, Frank and Johnson, Yotson, John Vaughan, Vernon Venable, Tom Edmunds, McDonald, Dr. Kyle, Hugh Gilliam.

Wytheville Social News.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
WYTHEVILLE, VA., March 27.—Mrs. James R. Cowan, of Radford, and Mrs. Josephine Battle, of Roanoke, were the guests of friends in town this week.
Mrs. Robert Sayers is visiting her mother, Mrs. John H. Guy, at her home in Richmond.
Mrs. E. H. Hagoy, of Max Meadows, is spending a few days with Mrs. D. H. St. Clair.
Mrs. Stephen Putney has as her guests Mrs. A. L. Gravelly, of Martinsville, and Mrs. Townsend Gaines and children, of Lynchburg.
Mrs. Josephine Reed has returned to "Ingleside" after a visit to friends in Richmond and Bluefield.
Miss John G. Davis, of New Orleans, for the Mardi Gras, is still quite sick, and will not be able to return home for some time.
C. Long and family, late of Tazewell, have rented and moved into the Jackson residence in Jackson Park.
Mrs. C. H. Richmond, is the guest of Miss Jane Gibbons.
Mrs. Robert Graham, of Pulaski, is visiting Dr. and Mrs. John T. Graham.
Major George Wythe Givens, of Cripple Creek, is seriously sick.

South Boston Social News.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
SOUTH BOSTON, VA., March 27.—Miss Lela Barker, an attractive debutante of Lynchburg, was entertained by Miss Rose Watkins Thursday evening. A progressive game of "Forty-four" was played, and the winners were Miss Barker, Blanche Gentry, Josephine Battle, Nannie Carrington, Mamie Fry, Ruth Singleton, Rose and Imogen Watkins, Mrs. J. C. Green, Mrs. Moseley and Briggs, Joseph Stebbins, Jr., Tyroa Wright, J. C. Lawson, E. L. Walker, D. C. Watkins, Verne Stephens, Armadillo Pendleton. Refreshments were served.
Mrs. W. A. Williamson and wife, of New York, visited Mr. Williamson's mother here this week.
Andrew B. Williamson, of Richmond, spent a few days here this week.
Miss Mimi Phifer, of Danville, was the guest of Mrs. O. J. Hunt during the week. Miss Bendall, of Danville, is spending some time visiting Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Bendall at this place.

Blacksburg Social News.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
BLACKSBURG, VA., March 27.—In honor of her success in the "Thursdays" of Richmond, and Miss Nell Hunter, of Lewisburg, Va., and the "Thursdays Club," of which she is a member, Mrs. J. H. Woolf gave a reception Thursday afternoon from 4 to 6 o'clock. The hostess was as-

Taffeta Silk Petticoats

In shades to match the new spring colors. Excellent quality taffeta, made with deep sectional flaring flounces with ruffles and tucks, $5 value. Special for...

$2.98

20 distinct styles Women's New Spring Suits at $15.00

There's No Finer Assortment to Be Found in Richmond

Lovely Fancy Striped $5.00 Madras Dresses,

FANCY STRIPE MADRAS DRESSES, for morning wear, in lavender, blue, green and black and white, panel Princess style, at $5.00 and...

$5.98

VERY SMART LINEN AND GINGHAM DRESSES, Princess styles, handsomely braided, at...

$8.50

FRENCH LINEN ONE-PIECE DRESSES, handsomely braided with soutache in self tones, panel back, at $10.00 and...

$12.50

FRENCH LINEN THREE-PIECE SUITS, in all shades, handsome braided waists, with inlaid collar of same on coat; a $20.00 value, for...

$15.00

SMART LINEN DRESSES, in dark shades; entire waist and sleeves handsomely braided on self-tone net, finished with big satin buttons and girde of black; special...

$22.50

$1.00 For Rough Satin, a new distinctive weave, regular $1.25 value; comes in all the season's newest shades; 10 pieces only placed on sale to-morrow at this price.

$15 For Messaline and Foulard Silk Dresses, princess and directoire style. These come in all the new shades and handsomely trimmed.

Colored Foulard Dresses

In navy, reseda, rose and Copenhagen; effectively trimmed in Persian lace; made with fancy yoke; skirt cut circular; special...

$17.50

$25.00 Messaline Silk Dresses

In all new shades, also black; made on the real Directoire lines, with shirred sleeves; special...

$20.00

Rajah Silk Dresses

In all the leading shades, with handsome braided girde; hipless skirts. These beautiful Dresses are strikingly stylish; special...

$25.00

Satin Stripe Novelty Suiting and Fancy Mohair Suiting, all shades; Gray Suitings, in plain and plaid effects; 38-inch All-wool French Batiste; All-wool Imperial Serge, 36-inch

50c

At $15.00 are included fine Suits of Serges and Fancy Two-Tone Striped Chevrons in a smart tailored four-button effect—notched collar or fancy inlaid satin collar with tie to match—choice of 34, 36 and 38-inch coat, lined with fancy striped silk or guaranteed satin—all the pastel colors, as well as navy and black—

What $17.50 Will Buy!

Tailored Suits, in fancy grays, rose, reseda, Copenhagen, 36-inch hipless coats, well tailored and collarless—cutaway styles.

What $20.00 Will Buy!

New Black Suits, in fine Serges and Invisible Striped Worsteds—36-inch semi-fitting coats, strictly tailor finish, Messaline lining.

What $25.00 Will Buy!

Rajah and Pongee Silk Suits—36 and 40-inch coats, strictly tailor finish, with Messaline lining—skirts all cut new style.

Ladies'

All-Silk Gloves

16-button length, in black, tan, light blue, red, pink, reseda, old rose and pongee, regular price $1.50 and $2, at

$1

For Men!

We offer 300 pairs of 25c Imported Sox, no seam across the toe, Hermsdorf dyed; colors, black and tan, per pair, 17c

17c

Great Array of Easter Dress Goods

We have made extraordinary preparations for the Easter trade this season with the result that we show a bewildering exhibition of the new colors in all the latest weaves. Selections are best now when the assortments are complete.

Shepherd Checks in Popular Demand

36-inch Shepherd Checks, in all size checks; per yard,	38-inch Shepherd Checks, in all size checks; per yard,	42-inch Shepherd Checks, in all size checks; per yard,	50-inch Shepherd Checks, in all size checks; per yard,
25c	50c	75c	$1.00

$1.00 Yard for GERMAN HENRIETTA

In shades of old rose, smoke, stone green, navy, tan, brown, light blue and pink. This is a much-wanted fabric, and is very scarce, and is worth $1.50 per yard.

50c Yard for NOVELTY DRESS GOODS

For Monday we place on sale ten pieces of Novelty Dress Goods, worth $1.50 and $1.00 yard, 44 to 50 inches wide; sale price to-morrow, 50c per yard.

Low Prices on Exquisite Silks

New Silks—rich, lustrous, beautiful—Silks as worthful every way as they are desirable. Made by the best weavers of France and America. Just the very Silks that fashion is crying loudest for, and that are scarce in many other stores. And yet offered by us at lower prices—considerably lower—than prevail elsewhere.

Satin Stripe Premier, a superb silk mixed fabric, 27 inches wide, with self-color stripe and dot, 50c grade; to-morrow...

39c

Messaline de Soie, 27 inches wide, an exquisite material, silk mixed, with high lustre, 20 of newest shades to select from, 69c grades...

50c

Rubiyat Silk, a new silk with a rough, knotty weave, 27 inches wide; a complete range of colors, now on display; sale price...

75c

We Extend a Cordial Invitation

To all those interested in the use of Sewing Silk to visit our store Tuesday, where a representative of the manufacturer of the famous Costicelli Spool Silk will demonstrate to them the superiority of this well known brand.

We Sell More Ready-to-Wear Garments Than Any Other Store in Richmond.

Ladies' Hosiery

600 pairs of Ladies' 50c Hermsdorf Black Lisle Hose, double sole, woven of the finest Sea Island cotton, no seam across the toe, on sale to-morrow at isted in receiving by the guests of honor and the callers included the members of the club and others specially invited for this occasion.

39c

Mrs. G. W. Walker's spending some time with her husband, Mr. William Williams, and later will visit her brother, Dr. Wyser, at Clifton Forge.
Misses Elizabeth and Gertrude Young, of Washington, are week-end guests of Professor and Mrs. H. P. Read.
Mrs. James Tower, of Iowa Springs, Mich., is a guest at the home of Colonel and Mrs. Jamerson, on the campus.
Mrs. H. C. Froehling has returned to Richmond after a two weeks' visit to her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. K. Henderson.
Judge S. W. Williams, of Giles, was called here this week by the very serious illness of his sister, Mrs. William Williams. The latter is not improving, and the physicians have no hope of her recovery.
Mrs. Alexander Black and Mrs. John Hampton Hoge are spending two weeks with relatives in Roanoke.
Mr. and Mrs. William Teany have gone with their little daughter, Emma, to the Johns Hopkins Hospital, in Baltimore.
Miss Emma Wall is visiting her sister, Mrs. Williams, in Marion, and will be absent until the late spring.
Miss Mary Zell, of Pulaski, arrived Thursday to spend several weeks with her aunt, Mrs. Kent Black.
Pitt Murfill, principal of the High School here, has given up that position to accept one with the United States Post-Office Department, with headquarters at Washington.

West Point Social News.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
WEST POINT, VA., March 27.—It is difficult to tell which is exciting people more just at this time, high schools or good roads. It is easier to theorize about these subjects than to bring them to pass. In the matter of high schools old fogies and in good roads, muddy holes and sticky clay are stubborn facts to face and overcome.
Professor Swinley, principal of the West Point High School, with five teachers, the president of the School Improvement League, and twelve pupils, visited the Cen-

South Hill Social News.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
SOUTH HILL, VA., March 27.—Miss Mattie Mitchell, of Blanche, N. C., is visiting the family of R. M. Hubbard, near town.

Mrs. B. T. Wartman and little son returned Thursday from a visit to relatives in Oxford, N. C.
Misses Annie and Elsie Hobgood returned to their home at Buffalo Junction Friday, after spending several days with their sister, Mrs. C. C. Curdin.
Miss Lucile Elmore, a South Hill High School pupil, was called home Monday by the illness of her father.
Mrs. W. H. Elam, of Baskerville, is visiting the family of Mr. T. D. Elam.
Miss Sadie Osburn, of Opel, was a South Hill visitor the first of the week.
Miss Agnes Wright, of Brunswick, is visiting the family of her brother, W. W. Wright.
Miss Julia Elam is spending the week with relatives in Lawrenceville.
Mrs. D. A. Cook entertained in honor of Mrs. Charles Tyler, of Richmond.
Mrs. Charles Humphrey entertained in honor of Miss Rockefeller.
Miss Mary Gatewood is spending a few days with Mrs. Samuel Bland before returning to her home in South Carolina.
Miss Cordelia Smith, who has had pneumonia, is convalescing.
Mrs. Clyde E. Ross, who has been sick for the past week, is better.
Mrs. W. R. Bray, of Wakama, is visiting Mrs. Clyde E. Ross.
A telegram yesterday from the Naval Hospital, Portsmouth, reported the serious illness of Hormann Gault, to his parents here. Mr. Gault went down at once. Young Mr. Gault, since last September, has taken the engineering course near Norfolk. He was on the corps that attended President-elect Taft and party to Panama, and was booked to return to Panama on Monday, March 22.
Rev. John William Jones, "the Southern Historian," was pastor of the Baptist Church over twenty years ago, and has many friends here who highly esteemed him and mourn that he is no more.
Since the revival meeting that closed two weeks ago there has been organized an interdenominational brotherhood of about seventy-five or one hundred members to meet weekly. A young man's prayer-meeting has also been organized in connection with the Baptist Church.

been for the past month. Her condition is very little improved.
Miss Mabel Baach gave a recital of her music pupils at the opera house Friday evening.
A handsome picture of General Robert E. Lee was presented to the public school last week.
Maurice Leon, of Maybury, W. Va., was the guest of friends here Sunday.
Mrs. W. E. Jenkins returned home Sunday from a visit to relatives at Washington, D. C.
Fred Boray was in Bluefield, W. Va., Sunday.
Maurice Leon, of Maybury, W. Va., was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. M. Bloch Sunday.
Miss Mann, of Monroe county, W. Va., was in the city this week, the guest of Mrs. Franklin Ward.
Rev. Samuel W. Moore, of Williamson, W. Va., was in the city Tuesday the guest of friends.
BLACKSTONE, VA., March 27.—Mrs. J. R. Percival entertained the Finch Club at her home Tuesday afternoon.
T. A. Overly, B. E. Cobb, D. W. Perkins, W. Moncreau Gravat and L. W. Doherty were in Burkeville on business this week.
C. F. Deane, of Nottoway, was in town on business this week.
J. J. Wilson, of Crowe, was in town on business.
Mrs. E. G. Bagley and Miss Pauline Heathorn, of Kenbridge, were here this week visiting friends.
Miss Mattie Hardy, of Norfolk, is visiting her sister, Mrs. George P. Adams.
C. H. Robertson, of the Blackstone Horse Exchange, was in Tennessee this week purchasing a new supply of horses and mules.
Walter H. Taylor, of Norfolk, division counsel of the Virginia Railway Company, was here this week to see W. Moncreau Gravat on professional business.
S. H. Love, of Lunenburg, was here this week.
J. E. Crafton, county surveyor of Lunenburg, was in town this week.

burg, was in town this week doing some surveying.
George Calhoun, of Lawrenceville, deputy sheriff of Brunswick, was here this week on a visit to his mother, Mrs. Cameron Cardozo.
N. C. Cardozo, of Capron, was here this week visiting relatives.
Mrs. L. W. Lane, Sr., is visiting her daughter, Mrs. E. T. Lamb, in Norfolk.
Miss Lorna Daley, of Minneapolis, is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. H. Daley.
Mrs. Virginia Christian is visiting her son, Hodges Christian, in Hampton.
Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Chapman have returned from an extended stay in Madison, Wis.
Mrs. W. C. Johnson left Tuesday for Richmond, to visit relatives.
Misses Florence and Garnett Sweeney spent several days in Richmond this week. Hugh Mercer left this week for Richmond to accept a position.
Mr. and Mrs. James H. Stone left Wednesday for Culpeper to visit relatives.
James Barry, of Norfolk, spent Monday here.
Misses Claudia Brooks and Katie Gray were in Richmond Monday to see Ben Greer's troupe play "Macbeth."
Miss Catherine Gleday has returned home from a visit to friends in Newport News.

by Misses Lucille Chapman and Hannah Oliver.
Miss Maxie Gills left for Norfolk Saturday for a visit to her sister, Mrs. E. K. Zirkle.
Misses Bettie and Kate Warriner spent the week-end in Richmond.
Mr. and Mrs. J. Young and Mrs. J. Chick, of Farmville, are visiting Mrs. Humphrey Younger.
Mrs. E. F. Lockett is with her daughter, Mrs. M. Ferguson, of Louisville.
Mrs. John Schaubach is recuperating at Chase City, after a long illness.
Miss Nettie Moore has returned from a visit to her sister, Mrs. Wayt Royall, of Newport News.
Mrs. J. Long, of Richmond, is visiting her sister, Mrs. W. M. Dyon.
Mrs. Agnes Harper has returned from a visit to her old home, near Cape Charles.
Miss Clara Lockett has returned to her home in Petersburg, after a stay of some weeks with relatives here.
Henry Carter, of West Virginia, has lately visited his brother, Bernard Carter.
Miss Alma Lankford, of the Blackstone Female Institute, spent the week-end with Rev. and Mrs. J. L. Bray.
BALLSVILLE, VA., March 27.—Mrs. Hugh F. Goodman has gone to Midlothian, where she will visit relatives.
Mrs. T. J. Shepard, of Chester, is spending the week with her parents here.
Miss Mary Abrahams, of Powhatan Institute, was the week-end guest of Miss Louise Taylor.
Mrs. L. T. Bowles, of Richmond, is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. M. Wainston.
J. C. Terry was called to South Boston Tuesday to attend the burial of his mother, Mrs. Peyton Brown, of Missouri, are spending the week with D. H. Brown.
Miss Della Grubb, of Chatham, is the guest of Mrs. F. H. Hinton.
James Harvey, of Richmond, spent Monday at Mt. Laurel, Farmville, spent several days with his parents last week.
Miss Mamie Green is spending the week in Richmond with friends.